GOVERNMENT NAVAL POLICY IS NEGATIVE

This Fact Absolutely Established by Tuesday's Debate in House of Commons—Hon. Frank Oliver Deals
Very Strongly With This Phase of the Question.

Bulletin Special.
Ottawa, Nov. 29.—Yesterday's debate absolutely established the negative policy of the government in regard to naval defence. Hon. Frank Oliver, minister of finance, pointed out the fact that the government was not in a position to increase the size of the fleet, and that the only way to increase it was by increasing the number of ships.

In dealing with the question of naval defence, Hon. Frank Oliver pointed out that the government was not in a position to increase the size of the fleet, and that the only way to increase it was by increasing the number of ships.

The government, however, was not in a position to increase the size of the fleet, and that the only way to increase it was by increasing the number of ships.

The trend of the debate, he said, indicated that no policy would be declared until a plebiscite had been taken. He then declared that the government was not in a position to increase the size of the fleet, and that the only way to increase it was by increasing the number of ships.

The government, however, was not in a position to increase the size of the fleet, and that the only way to increase it was by increasing the number of ships.

No reply was made from the government side and after four more edifying minutes had spoken the House rose at midnight.

Carry Out Buffalo Hide.

At three o'clock, fearing that the fire might spread, Chief Lauder sent his men to the fire station after Mr. Wolfe, of Wolfe and Hine, the last-demonstrator, whose establishment is just south of the destroyed building. Mr. Wolfe, with the assistance of another of firemen, carried out to the street a large quantity of the most valuable furs, rugs, mounted heads and stuffed specimens in his shop. One of the skins first taken out was that of the huge wood buffalo shot near Fort Smith, which is being mounted for the Alberta government to be placed in the new capitol building. Fortunately the fire did not spread to the adjoining buildings, for with a series of water hose conflagration might have resulted.

COMMISSIONERS MEETINGS WILL BE HELD IN SECRET

MAYOR ARMSTRONG DECIDES ON THIS COURSE — COMMISSIONER
CANDY NOT CONSULTED—NO INFORMATION TO BE GIVEN TO RATEPAYERS TILL MEETINGS OF COUNCIL.

The board of city commissioners, to whom the charter gives complete control of the city utilities, involving the expenditure of immense sums of money, will hold its meetings in secret so long as Mayor Armstrong is in office. The most important acts of this body, all-powerful in the exercise of the executive functions of city government, will be taken behind closed doors, and of their doings the public will learn only so much as the Mayor, Mayor Armstrong, chooses to give out to the representatives of the press at the conclusion of the meeting.

Candy Not Consulted.
The decision to hold future meetings in secret was reached by Mayor Armstrong without consultation with Commissioner Candy. I was not consulted by the Mayor, said Commissioner Candy, who was asked by the Bulletin yesterday whether the new policy of secrecy was adopted with his approval. "My consent was not asked before the door was locked at the opening of this morning's meeting. I do not think I should express any opinion as to the wisdom or expediency of this course as soon as the newly-appointed commissioners take office."

There Was Lockout.
Shortly after ten in the morning the commissioners met in the Mayor's room. No one was present but the secretary to the board, and before the meeting opened the door was locked, either by the Mayor, in person or by the secretary under his direction. The door remained locked until the close of the meeting. At the end of three-quarters of an hour the secretary emerged with the stack of correspondence and apartments.

dent's reports, which had received consideration. The reporters, who in the past have had access to all papers laid before the meeting, were handed one letter, the privilege having been granted them by the Mayor to make the contents known to the public. Whether or not any expenditure of ratepayer's money was authorized at this secret meeting is not known.

Pipe of Sink Closed.
Of all the business transacted in the Mayor's desire to advise the public only the plumbing inspector that the tenant of a house rented from the city is unable to use the sink, as the pipe has been stopped. The volume of correspondence placed before the meeting and the time spent before the meeting ran would seem to indicate that matters of great importance may have been considered. His Worship, however, an supreme self-constituted censor, decided that this alone would be made known to the ratepayers.

His Worship's Reason.
When interviewed by the Bulletin at the close of the meeting, Mayor Armstrong gave as the reason for adopting the policy of secrecy that the reports from superintendents and inspectors had been obtained by him to indicate the connection between the alleged vice and the supplied remedy. "This course was decided upon at the meeting of the council last evening," he said.

"In there any record of the action at the minutes of the council," he was asked. His reply was in the negative.

"I think the system in vogue in the past, under which the commissioner's meetings have been open to the press and the public, was wrong," he volunteered.

In reply to further questions he declared that while he had the support of the council he had not been forced into this course by that body.

Toronto, Nov. 29.—The Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, after discussing for two days the present political situation yesterday issued a manifesto appealing to the electors to vote and vote for the "bar" states who are avowed and trustworthy supporters of temperance reform, who can be depended upon to do well in their power to secure at the earliest opportunity the enactment of effective legislation against the bar room evil. "This is a fight," the manifesto concludes, "it is an alliance of the Christian churches of our land. We can defeat the united forces that support the liquor traffic. We would urge all right-thinking citizens to put their temperance principles before any party preference in the approaching contest."

Atlanta, Georgia, Nov. 28.—In accordance with the resolution adopted by the American Federation of Labor, the building trades department, in annual session today, reinstated the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, which was suspended about a year ago. There were no representatives of the carpenters present, but the opinion prevails that the carpenters will return.

Liquidation of Ontario Bank.
Toronto, Nov. 27.—James Hain, of Hickson, Hain & Strachan, solicitors for the liquidation of the Ontario bank, stated that the expenses to the double liability bill of the shareholders of that bank had been so good that a return of between twenty and thirty per cent. of the amount is secured. It would be impossible to state what this would amount to, he said, until the rest of the assets were realized. Providing a piece of property in Port William was disposed of, the returns, he thought, would be about 25 per cent. The actions against the directors of the bank had been settled by consent. Mr. Justice Tait, granting permission, but no details of the settlement have been or will be given out.

Joe James, colored, was convicted at a trial of assault on a white man and sentenced to six months in jail at the Port Arthur penitentiary. He was brought in yesterday and started to serve his term.

The draw at the Capital, ending this for Thursday night in the President vs. Vice-President, is as follows: J. B. Henson vs. Dr. Daniel A. Archibald vs. P. Smith; J. McKenna vs. C. Young.

Mr. McCormick, of Kitchener, Ont., arrived in the city on Wednesday and will visit his son, John McCormick, 17 Doyle street, during the winter. In May next both father and son will proceed to British Columbia.

All officers and non-commissioned officers of the 101st Regiment despatched to the Royal School of Instruction, commencing January 3rd, 1912, at Port Colborne, Ontario. All are required to forward their written application to the Orderly Room, not later than December 31st next.

A number of visitors in Edmonton from different parts of the world called at the Board of Trade yesterday morning and had a talk with Secretary Fisher. Among them were the registered: J. D. Norris, of Winnipeg, travelling salesman; about 100 of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's athletes; J. D. Norris, of Winnipeg, travelling salesman; about 100 of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's athletes; J. D. Norris, of Winnipeg, travelling salesman; about 100 of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's athletes.

Another charge against Stein. Already convinced on one charge of obtaining money fraudulently from John Platerius, a farmer employee of the Edmonton Iron Works, John Stein was tried again in the district court yesterday for complicity in the same transaction. He, J. Robinson, counsel for the accused, sought to eliminate evidence other than that coming directly on the first charge, but Judge Taylor ruled against him.

Stein is specifically charged with having secured money from the estate of Mrs. Platerius, between September 22 and about a month later, by representing $25 for the alleged purpose of paying a mortgage on the property. Stein was charged with complicity in the same transaction. He, J. Robinson, counsel for the accused, sought to eliminate evidence other than that coming directly on the first charge, but Judge Taylor ruled against him.

The evidence showed that Stein did not turn the money over to the lawyer, although he signed a receipt for the full amount paid by Mrs. Platerius. Stein's defense is that the money was for his own services rendered in the half of Platerius and that he was not therefore accountable in criminal charges.

A number of witnesses were in attendance at the trial and the case attracted considerable interest. The trial was continued by frequent arguments between Crown Prosecutor Campbell and counsel for the defendant.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OPENING. C. W. Fisher, M.P., of Cochrane, speaker of the legislative assembly of Alberta, arrived yesterday morning and was a guest at the Yale Hotel. Mr. Fisher has full charge of the arrangements for the opening. The afternoon of the 11th of December is the second Legislative Assembly of Alberta.

The galleries on the right and left of the legislative chamber are seating 100 persons. They will be thrown open to the public. Admission to the speaker's gallery at the north end of the chamber will be by invitation only.

Either from the speaker through members of the legislative assembly or through the speaker direct. The 37th gallery is exclusively for newspaper reporters. A few chairs will be placed on the floor of the chamber for the use of either members' wives or friends.

The proceedings of the Legislature will be purely formal. The Lieutenant Governor will read the regular prayers by the clerk of the house that pursuant to the provisions of the act of the legislative assembly of Alberta, the time for receiving petitions for private bills will expire Friday, December 15th.

AT THE HOTELS. Cecil N. Schmidt, Wakefield; R. E. Sparks, Medicine Hat; A. J. West, Calgary; Donald Miller, Olds; R. H. Hamilton, Morleyville; Mrs. F. J. Mackay, Airdrie; Miss Laidlaw, Camrose; H. Stuart, Hintonville; N. J. Fletcher, Calgary; W. M. Riley, J. M. Hunter, Jr., and James Sample, Charlton; N. K. Lee, Mrs. Anne N. C. Dunn, Wainwright.

HEART DISEASE

Kingsford Girl Saved by "Fruit-a-Lives"

Heart trouble, and heart irritation are the common sources of indigestion. Gas is formed in the stomach and is expelled by belching. It cuts out the walls of the stomach and presses against the heart. Palpitation, pain over the heart, and sometimes a feeling of smothering and distress, all are caused by the stomach and not because of any organic heart disease.

"Fruit-a-Lives" will always cure this weak, irritated condition of the heart by curing the stomach.

"I suffered for some years with a dangerous form of Heart Trouble. My heart beat violently, and I had pain over the heart and down the stomach. I also suffered with Constipation and Indigestion. I was treated by Physicians and took many remedies, but nothing did me any good. Then I began taking 'Fruit-a-Lives' and this medicine completely cured me of all the heart trouble, constipation and indigestion, and gave me back perfect health."

—Miss MARY L. JONES, age 40, 606 E. 2nd St., or trial size, 50c. At all dealers or by direct order from the Wm. Sugarman Co., Limited, Ontario.

21st year of service in Winnipeg, and at the first of the present month made a further reduction of ten cents. This price is as far as the owner could go. It will be in force for the winter. The price before was $1.00 per barrel at the mill after making allowance for freight. It is a drop in price since 1907, before it was $1.10 per barrel, and during this time the cost of labor has been increased over 25 per cent. I have been connected with different cement companies in Ontario for the last 25 years, and assure you that not one will in Ontario do better than the Canadian Cement Company can produce cement and sell it at such a low price without losing by doing so.

These sound mills have in the past been large shippers to Western Canada, but it is now necessary to sell in future to be driven from the Western market. Our cement is sold at a price lower than our cost price. I am a committee to invest in cement, but I am not sure that it will be pleased to give them every opportunity to investigate in detail our cost of production. Yours truly, THOMAS L. DAVIES, Mgr., Wm. Sugarman Co., Limited, Ontario.

THE AVERAGE PRICE RECEIVED BY THIS COMPANY IN WINNIPEG DURING THE YEAR 1910 WAS $2.50 PER BARREL. IN 1909 THE AVERAGE PRICE DROPPED TO $1.50 PER BARREL AND IN 1908 THE PRICE VARIED FROM $1.50 PER BARREL TO $2.00 PER BARREL.

THE CASE OF THIS GREAT REDUCTION DURING 1910 WAS THAT TWO LARGE MILLS WERE IN CANADA FINANCED BY AMERICAN COMPANIES AND STARTED OPERATIONS THAT YEAR. THESE MILLS, IN ORDER TO GET A QUICK MARKET FOR THEIR LARGE OUTPUT COMMENCED CUTTING PRICES BELOW THOSE QUOTED BY THE OLDER CANADIAN COMPANIES. THE RESULT OF THIS WAS THAT SEVERAL OF THE CANADIAN COMPANIES WERE FORCED INTO LIQUIDATION. SOME OF THE LARGER COMPANIES WERE FORCED TO SELL THEIR PLANTS AT A LOSS. THE RESULT OF THIS WAS THAT SEVERAL OF THE CANADIAN COMPANIES WERE FORCED INTO LIQUIDATION.
